History

This is a small cemetery on private land believed to have operated before 1900, in association with Cooper's Accommodation House. L Barraclough lists burials as Mrs cooper and baby, Martin boy, Bayliss boy. Rogers & Heylar record four graves: - Baylis (infant); - Martin (infant); John William Cooper, aged 53 years, died of lung disease 10 Aug 1885; Henry Cooper, aged 5 years, died of croup 15 July 1883, son of Isabella and John Cooper. Charles Langtree, a former owner of the property, placed the concrete posts in the ground in order to permanently mark the grave positions, then still visible.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
