Statement of Significance

Last updated on - October 31, 2005

Local - limited late 19th-century development. Limited archaeological potential. Later developments likely to have substantially impacted large areas of the site.

Under the terms of the Heritage Act 2017 there is protection for all historical archaeology sites and objects in the state.

Please visit the Heritage Victoria website to find out more about the Heritage Inventory.

Interpretation of Site	Site constitutes a variably disturbed inner suburban area subject to development in the late 19th-century. Uses of the site prior to the 1890s have not been specifically identified and the site appears to have been relatively peripheral. Late 19th-century restricted to storage and light industrial uses. Later uses will have substantially impacted large areas of the site.
