Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

A double-fronted late Victorian brick house built about 1895, with substantial additions and alterations. It is historically significant locally as a representative embodiment of family life in Ringwood of this period. Its significance is increased by its situation within a small group of the period.

Physical Description 1

A double-fronted brick house, with hipped roof. The light red brickwork is finely tuckpointed Flemish bond and plain stretcher bond at sides. There are three chimneys with dogtoothed corbels at top. The right bay is set forward as a gable with a reinforced concrete lintel over a double-hung sash window pair. The upper gable has mock shingles. There is a small (later) porch in the angle. There are two entrance doors in the angle; that at right is Edwardian.

Intactness

The verandah floor has been replaced with concrete; the original verandah may have been removed. The gable may be a 1920s-40s addition. The high fence is not appropriate.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
