Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

What is Significant?

The Victorian duplex, constructed in 1891, at 35-37 Cecil Street, Williamstown.

How is it Significant?

The Victorian duplex at 35-37 Cecil Street, Williamstown is of local historic and aesthetic significance to the City of Hobsons Bay.

Why is it Significant?

Historically, the duplex is significant as a representative example of the speculative development that occurred in Williamstown during the nineteenth century. It is notable for the associations with the locally prominent Brew family as examples of investment properties, which are located near the investor's other interests. (AHC criteria A4 and H1)

Aesthetically, the duplex is significant as an intact example of the timber duplex form with a hipped undivided roof so prevalent in Williamstown but less so in the metropolis. It contributes to the historic character of Cecil Street. (AHC criteria B2 and E1)
