Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

What is Significant?

The shop and dwelling, constructed c.1925 and extended in 1937, at 300-302 Melbourne Road, Newport.

How is it Significant?

The shop and dwelling at 300-302 Melbourne Road, Newport are of local historic and aesthetic significance to the City of Hobson's Bay.

Why is it Significant?

Historically, they demonstrate the second phase of development that occurred in Newport during the Interwar period as a result of the expansion of industry in the area. (AHC criteria A4 and D2)

Aesthetically, it is an intact example of a large Interwar commercial and residential building, which retains notable original detailing. It is also a rare Interwar example where the residence is a major streetscape component. (AHC criteria B2, E1 and F1)
