Physical Description 1

"This pair of two storey apartment buildings on the corner of Toorak Road would appear to be in part a substantial modification of the house built c 1912 for Roy Huckell, physician which is shown on the c 1912 MMBW detail plan, or else have replaced it. Lugano Flats were built to the rear of Huckell's house in 1922, and now both buildings have been modified as apartments. This scale, setbacks and character of these buildings are generally in keeping with Como Avenue."
