Physical Description 1

DESCRIPTION

This building is a typical cottage with a gabled roof traversing a small block and set close to the front boundary. It is clad in weatherboards and has a corrugated iron roof. There is a verandah which is a later addition. The only remaining decorative elements are the wooden finials at the apex of the gable ends.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
