Physical Description 1

"This two-storey, red brick building reiterates themes established at 1606 in which the tiled roof spills through a broken parapet to form an awning above the first floor window. In this instance, the facade is highlighted by two small oriel windows and ornate timber brackets to the overhanging roof. Again, the ground floor has been modified."

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
