Veterans Description for Public

The Essendon Boer War Memorial, a granite cenotaph, is engraved with the names of 68 fallen and returned soldiers who fought in the Boer War. The monument was first erected as a Rockery on June 2nd 1902 to commemorate the Boer War and the accession to the throne of King Edward VIII. It was then re-erected in its present form on August 30th 1936.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
