Physical Description 1

A double-fronted, hip-roofed, timber Edwardian house. The left bay projects as a gable. The upper section is mock shingles and jettys forward on brackets. In the angle is a gabled porch, which extends at left, under the hip as a verandah on posts with fretwork brackets. The porch has an arched valence, with a wavy palisade, with chrysanthemum quadrant brackets. At the corner is a splayed rectangular bay. All eaves have fretwork coved brackets.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
