Physical Description 1

A triple-fronted, hip-roofed, timber Late Victorian house with Edwardian characteristics. The left front and right side rear bays project as gables. These have upper sections of timbered roughcast, with an unusual convex jetty. It has a skillion windowhood on fretwork brackets. The mullion of its window pair has panel decoration. The verandah extends around the angle, under the main roof. There is a minor gable facing at the corner, beneath. The transom is curved, with sinuous curved fretwork brackets, Doric posts and a balustrade.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
