Physical Description 1

An elevated, late Victorian, timber, triple-fronted, hip-roofed house. The left front and right side rear bays project as gables. These have metal finials and the upper gable jettys with mock shingles and timbering, supported on convex and ogee brackets, with shaped barges, over a canted bay window with mock shingles in the upper part. There are ogee eaves brackets. A bullnosed verandah returns around the angle with a turned spindle palisade over a rail, with Chrysanthemum patterned side and fanlights and brackets and a four-panelled door.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
