Veterans Description for Public

The Rainbow War Memorial, on Federal Street, is a statuary monument of a digger staring straight ahead with his rifle upside down in the symbolic funereal position. The pedestal of the statue lists the names of those locals who served in the First and Second World War, 60 of whom never returned.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
