Veterans Description for Public

The Rochester War Memorial was first erected at the corner of Gillies and Moore Streets in 1902 but later moved in front of the RSL at the corner Victoria and Mary Streets. The memorial consists of a granite, marble and bluestone monument with a cast iron lamp on top. Originally dedicated to Sgt. Williamson who was killed in the Boer War, inscriptions have been added over the years for the First and Second World Wars, Korea, Malaysia, Borneo and Vietnam.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
