History

Burial notes for one of the cemeteries at Shady Creek note that of Dr Henry Hadden, along with two earlier burials belonging to members of the Brown family and the later burial of a Richard Rainford. The following information has been supplied regarding individuals interred at the site:

Brown, Julie Costello, Died August 1860

Brown, Isabella, Died November 1860, when scalded by boiling water.

Hadden, Henry; Surgeon. Born Wexford, Ireland. Died 29 May 1869 at Crossover turnoff, Melbourne Road, aged 41 years. Coroner's inquest into his death. Buried 2nd June 1869 at Shady Creek.

Rainford, Richard Albert; Splitter. Died 25th October 1875 at Russells Creek, caused by tree falling on him. Buried 28th October 1875 at Shady Creek.

The graves of Julie and Isabella Brown are believed to be the first two burials in the Shady Creek Cemetery, although neither death was registered. They are the wife and daughter of Nicol Brown, the licensee of the Drovers Rest Hotel. In 1895, Brown is recorded as having had his wife and daughter exhumed and reinterred in Rosedale Cemetery.
