SIGNIFICANCE

This 1860s artisans cottage is of regional historical significance as a rare survivor in an area of predominantly 1940s and 1950s houses, and for its associations with early Newtown artisans including John Good, miner, labourer and gardener, and later with two papermakers and a jeweller. It is of local architectural significance as a surviving early timber cottage with various intact elements such as ogee spouting and twelvepaned windows.
