Veterans Description for Public

The Yarrowonga War Memorial, located on Piper and Belmore Streets, was erected on Remembrance Day 1927. The memorial is an elaborate column crowned by a female figure holding a wreath of victory and at the base, a First World War Digger statue. The Digger stands supported by a marble tree trunk and holds a rifle, the barrel of which is broken. Beneath the female figure is a shield engraved with images of agriculture and prosperity: a sheep, ship, a wheat sheaf and a crossed pick and shovel. The memorial is dedicated to those local men and women who served in the Boer War, First World War and Second World War.
