Veterans Description for Public

The Numurkah RSL Hall is located on Saxton Street. In June 1916 a conference of Returned Soldiers' Association recommended formation of the Returned Sailors and Soldiers Imperial League of Australia (RSSILA, now known as the Returned and Service League or RSL). After the First World War RSSILA branches all around Australia commenced a program of building halls in which their members could meet. Many RSL Halls are still in use in their communities and house honour rolls listing the local people who served and died during war.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
