B Listed - Regional Significance

This pair, with a section which may date from 1861, has regional historical importance as an early Victorian artisans cottage associated with Richard Asling, hawker its first owner-occupier and bootmakers, Charles Browning and Charles Arnold in the 1870s and Thomas Bowring in the 1880s. The building has continued to be owned and occupied by artisans including a spinner, a carpenter, tailors and a wool sorter. They are of regional architectural significance as relatively intact early cottages surviving on an exposed site.
