Physical Description 1

DESCRIPTION

A double fronted symmetrical timber hip-roofed Italianate house transitional to Edwardian. It has a hip-roofed verandah across with a gabled porch at its centre. Chimneys have deep Classical mouldings and even eaves have ogee bracket pairs.

The verandah has cast-iron lace valence over a rail and brackets, with small zinc Corinthian capitals to the turned timber posts on splayed square bases. The front gable has rippled-iron with Medieval timbers, with a central panel of mock shingles supported by oversized timber Baroque influenced brackets.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
