The Rosehill Soldier Settlement Memorial Plaque is located in the grounds of the former Rosehill State School, on Bairnsdale-Dargo Road. The Soldier Settlement was established in 1948, when the Rosehill Estate near Bairnsdale was sub-divided into 15 blocks for returned soldiers from the Second World War. The plaque commemorates the success of the settlement, listing the names of the returned servicemen.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
