Physical Description 1

The house at 26 Fletcher Street, Essendon is a bi-chromatic Federation brick villa, which is situated at the north-east corner of Hoddle Street. Asymmetrical in plan it has a hip roof clad in slate tiles with a projecting bay and there is a return verandah with a cast-iron frieze. The projecting bay has a pair of round-headed windows. There is another pair of double hung sash timber in the main elevation beneath the verandah. The front door has sidelights and highlights. Other original features include the paired eaves brackets and bi-chromatic brick chimneys.

The house is in good condition and has a moderate degree of external integrity. Some of the original materials (e.g. roof slates, verandah details) have been replaced sympathetically. A large two storey addition has been added at the rear along with a masonry and steel grille fence along the front and side boundaries and a new garage in the rear yard.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
