History

The Clarks Road farmyard structure of may have been an animal shelter or shed to a larger farm complex. The Livingstone Parish plan identifies this property as Crown Allotment 29 in the north-eastern section of the parish. It consisted of 162 acres and was granted to A C Clark, presumably the property owner after whom the road was named. It is possible that this site relates to the Clark period of occupation.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
