Description

Semi-detached (with separate characteristics) brick pair each symmetrical double-fronted with a common hipped slate roof, built on the street boundary. There are separate concave hipped-roof verandahs with simple concave decorative brackets. There is a four-panelled door with furniture and fanlight with fine glazing bars, two fine double-hung windows and a stallboard separates the verandah from that of No. 72. The chimney has two pairs of terra-cotta pots. There is no party-wall parapet. The side wall is rendered.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
