The verandah is across the front and around the angle, under the hip. Its valance is palisade with unusual keyhole pattern pierced fretwork panels. Under the right babbler, the valance is deeper and wavy. The entrance door, side and fanlights are glazed with leadlight.
