STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

A particularly intact and unusually undecorated brick Edwardian house built in 1920, replacing a house built only ten years earlier. It is architecturally significant as an unusual variant of this domestic style and historically in embodying life in Newtown after the Great War

INTACTNESS: Excellent, but the high fence is not appropriate.

CONDITIONS AND THREATS: Very Good

REFERENCE: City of Newtown and Chilwell Ratebooks and Mr Roger Hudson, owner with RP 28 March 1997

Physical Description 1

DESCRIPTION

A triple-fronted, relatively undecorated red brick Edwardian house with a slated hipped roof of which extends at slight break-pitch over the verandah. The left and right side rear bays are set forward as gables with the verandah around the flush beading. Chimneys have a plain brick frieze and unglazed terracotta pots. The entrance has side and fanlights in leadlight, with oculus decorations in the side light.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
