Physical Description 1

A gambrel roofed rectangular but triple-fronted Edwardian timber house with an L-shaped verandah around the right angle, recessed under the roof. This has a palisade rail valence with arched and heart-shaped panels over bosses. Posts are sawn and arched. The dado weatherboards have v-cut decoration. There are skillion window-hoods on palisade and fretwork brackets. Rafters are expressed and the dark brown brick chimneys have unglazed pots. The roof has pressed metal curlicue finials and crenellated cresting. The panelled and glazed entrance door has side and fan-lights.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
