Memorial Window Description & History

On 28 February 1940 a soldier's memorial window and honour roll were unveiled by the Right Reverend JJ Booth, Bishop of Geelong. As the world was at war, it may be that this was a very late commemoration of the First World War, now adapted for the latest conflict.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
