Memorial Window Description & History

One of a series of five windows in the apsidal baptistry that were the gift of the 'Ladies of H.M.A.S. Cerberus in memory of A.C.C. Lost in the Second World War'. Suffer Little Children was installed as the central window of the series and the only one to include a text.

The window was one of many designed by David Taylor Kellock (1913-1988) for the Louis R. Williams designed chapel and installed from 1954. Kellock was an Edinburgh-trained stained glass artist who immigrated to Australia prior to the Second World War.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
