History

AB Fasham was a soldier settler who selected land in the Mount Violet Estate after it was sold for soldier settlement in 1921. The 1928 (1943) Chatsworth topographic map shows the approximate location of the house complex. After Fasham died in 1954 the property was sold. Improvements on the block is historically listed including a house, cowshed, woolshed, sheep yards, two mills and a permanent lake.
