
Quercus robur

Location

Alford Street WARRAGUL, BAW BAW SHIRE

Municipality

BAW BAW SHIRE

Level of significance

State

Heritage Listing

National Trust

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 1, 1900

What is significant?

This avenue of oak trees extends along Alford Street from Hope Street in the west to Victoria Street in the East. These trees are estimated to have been planted in circa 1910.

How is it significant?

This avenue of oaks is significant for aesthetic and scientific reasons at a Statel level.

Why is it significant?

This is a marvellous avenue of oaks, lining a residential street in Warragual. It is the only known street of its kind in the local area. The avenue makes a contribution to the surrounding street-scape being uniform in size and shape the length of the avenue.

Measurements: Unknown

Spread (m):

Girth (m): Average 2.7

Height (m): Average 25

Estimated Age (yrs): 100+

Condition: Good

Access: Unrestricted

Classified:

Other Names English oak,

Hermes Number 201830

Property Number

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>