
Brachychiton discolour

Location

28 Church Street, BENALLA RURAL CITY

Municipality

BENALLA RURAL CITY

Level of significance

Regional

Heritage Listing

National Trust

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 1, 1900

Tree Measurements:

Condition: Good

Tree Type: Individual

Circumference: 1.5m

Height: 20m

Canopy spread: 15.0

Height method: Instrument

Circumference method: Other

Date of measurement: 14/02/2018

Age of tree: approximately 20+ years

STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE SIGNIFICANCE:

What is significant?

This Brachychiton discolour (Queensland Lacebark) is located at 26 Church Street, Benalla.

How is it significant?

The Brachychiton discolor (Queensland Lacebark) is significant for scientific and social reasons at Regional level.

Why is it significant?

This large Brachychiton discolor (Queensland Lacebark) produces a colourful display of flowers each year. It has a fine form and large canopy spread of 15m making it significant at the Regional level for size and form. The species is uncommon in the area and joins only two others on the register to date (T11602, T12103) making the tree significant at the Regional level for its contribution to landscape.

Other Names Queensland Lacebark,

Hermes Number 202817

Property Number

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>