DESCRIPTION

67 Ormond Road is an Inter-War brick residence with a high degree of integrity. The building is asymmetrical and has a large hipped roof clad in terracotta tiles with a projecting gable at the front and side of the house. The front gable facade features corbelled brickwork as well as biochromatic details, and a tripartite casement window with a double soldier course of bricks. The same window details are found on the other gables. On the west side of the residence is the entrance porch. It features an unusual concave roof and arched opening. A tall cream brick chimney protrudes from the roof. The fence to the front of the site complements the style of the residence. 67 Ormond Road forms part of the residential streetscape.
