Physical Description 1

DESCRIPTION:

58 Sydney Parade is symmetrical double fronted timber cottage with a rear addition. The residence features a corrugated iron M-shaped gabled roof, and simple skillion verandah, as well typical Early Victorian details including double hung sash windows, a timber door with highlight, timber verandah posts, iron lacework and a rendered chimney with terracotta pots. The building has a small front garden and a brick fence along the front of the site which is not appropriate to the style of the building.

Physical Description 2

Largely intact cottage, weatherboard (beaded to front) front transverse gable roof clad in slate, timber vents to gable ends, rendered chimney with faceted pots. Verandah with cast iron frieze (timber surround), verandah previously had hipped roof (refer to 1936 aerial photograph). Timber sash windows, panelled timber door with highlight.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
