History

Documentary evidence shows the site was occupied in the mid-late 19th century as a slaughterhouse and piggery (and farm in the early 20th). The southern corner of the site contains the largest number of artefacts (although the middle of the site has not been tested to date), which represent mostly domestic use.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
