Physical Description 1

DESCRIPTION:

119 Yarra Street is a typical example of a Victorian Italianate terrace with a high degree of integrity. It features a single fronted facade with notable Filigree iron balustrade, frieze, brackets details and biochromatic brickwork. The bullnose verandah has a slender round iron column with classical detailing on the ground floor and a simple timber post on the first. The main entrance is set back from the facade and has two lead light fanlight above the door. The south party wall is completely clad with corrugated iron and had two small punctures in the wall for fenestration. Other notable details include exposed eaves brackets, simple double hung sash windows, a simple brick chimney with a pair of terracotta pots and a rendered strip below the windows on the ground floor and below the balustrade on ground floor. The building forms part of the residential streetscape.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
