STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The dwelling on the corner of Moolap Street and the Bellarine Highway was the Moolap Inn built in the 1850s. The building has undergone many changes but retains the bluestone cellars and other intact fabric. The dwelling on the corner of Moolap Street and the Bellarine Highway has historic and social value to the Moolap and Bellarine peninsula communities. Although it has been extensively altered it marks the site of an important building in early settlement. It is of LOCAL cultural significance.
