DESCRIPTION

The building is sited on a large corner block, with mature pines and gum trees ,and various outbuildings. The late Victorian house is a single storey , timber framed and weatherboard clad structure, painted white.

It has a hipped roof clad in new corrugated iron, two ornate polychrome brick chimneys, and decorative timber eave brackets in pairs. The return verandah on the north and west elevations is a recent addition. The original north elevation small bull nosed verandah has been removed. The north elevation has an ornate timber front door with a top light, and two pairs of narrow timber framed windows with shutters, symmetrically arranged either side of the door. The south west corner of the building has a new extension.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
