STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

'Lynnburn' homestead at Batesford was erected c 1857 for Dr. Robert Culbertson Hope as a single storey squared basalt residence with double bay front, slate roof and two storey rear kitchen wing and encircling verandah, now demolished. Walter Sheridan, a Geelong architect/surveyor, may have designed this austere and virtually unadorned stone structure. A flour mill and cellar were also located on 'Lynnburn' in the nineteenth century. 'Lynnburn' was for many years the country residence of eminent scottish born surgeon, pastoralist and politician, Dr. R. C. Hope.
