Physical Description 1

Sited on the top of a hill, this polychromatic brick, single-storey symmetrical Italianate cottage is oriented away from George Street, which was not constructed at the time it was built. The brickwork features three colours, with red brick sills, polychromatic chimney and cream brick string courses, bracket pairs and panels in the frieze. There is a hip-roofed verandah supported on timber posts with cast-iron lace valance and brackets.
