Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Probably of State significance as one of the earliest modern houses in Victoria designed and built by the important domestic architect Percy H. Meldrum for himself and his family in 1937-38.

One of the group of four designed by Meldrum at this time in this area. The sons were brought up here: Richard (architect and director of Meldrum & Burrows) and James (important artist, curator and art historian).

Physical Description 1

'Worrall' at 4 Cat Jump Road, Donvale is a modern L-shaped, single storey house in orange brick, with a corrugated iron low-pitched roof. The verandah is under an extension of the main roof pitch. There are floor-to-ceiling double-hung windows, with horizontal glazing bars. It has a long drive, lined with agapanthus plants. It is one of a group of four houses nearby, by the same architect at the same date.
