Physical Description 1

This house has been demolished. It was described in the Doncaster & Templestowe Heritage Study (1991) as follows:

'Hobbs House is a single high hipped-roofed, timber, California Bungalow house. The right-hand bay is set forward as a gable. This is decorated with weatherboards and timber brackets. A gable verandah is in the angle. There is a roughcast band on the chimneys. The garden plantings are of interest.'
