
MURDAM LODGE

23370 Cottage Murdam
Lodge Hamilton Hwy
Penshurst 0983

23370 Cottage Murdam
Lodge Hamilton Hwy
Penshurst 0984

23370 Cottage Murdam
Lodge Hamilton Hwy
Penshurst 0985

Location

Hamilton Highway PENSHURST, Southern Grampians Shire

Municipality

SOUTHERN GRAMPIANS SHIRE

Level of significance

Stage 2 study complete

Heritage Listing

Southern Grampians Shire

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - December 19, 2003

What is significant?

The bluestone cottage and adjacent Elm Tree (Ulmus procera) on the land of the modern 'Murdam Lodge' is located on the north side of the Hamilton Highway, approximately 3.0kms north-west of the township of Penshurst. The cottage is a simple vernacular form, with four rooms. The central passage is unusual as it is parallel to the main road. The mature Elm is located immediately adjacent to the cottage, and is thought to date from the same time as the cottage was constructed. There has been no architect or builder associated with the design. The structure is abandoned and in ruinous condition, but retains a high degree of integrity. The Elm is in good condition.

How is it significant?

The cottage and adjacent tree at Murdam Lodge are of historical significance to the township of Penshurst and the Southern Grampians Shire.

Why is it significant?

Murdam Lodge is of historical significance for its association with the Hammond family, long time residents of Penshurst, and for its continual ownership in this family for over 120 years. It is of further historical significance as a representative example of a small vernacular bluestone cottage which demonstrates a previous way of life, and use of local materials to construct homes.

Heritage Study/Consultant	Southern Grampians - Southern Grampians Shire Heritage Study, Timothy Hubbard P/L, Annabel Neylon, 2002;
Construction dates	1850,
Heritage Act Categories	Registered place,
Hermes Number	23370
Property Number

Physical Conditions

Ruinous condition.

Physical Description 1

The single storey bluestone cottage is a vernacular structure with a typical plan of four rooms and a central passage. It is unusual in that the passage is parallel to the main road. A large Elm (Ulmus procera) has been planted adjacent to the cottage. Little of the garden survives.

Historical Australian Themes

Theme 8 Developing Australia's cultural life
8.12 Living in and around Australian homes
8.14 Living in the country and rural settlements

Usage/Former Usage

Ruinous and abandoned

Integrity

High degree of integrity despite ruinous condition

Physical Description 2

Hammond Family

Physical Description 3

Vol. 4055 Fol. 829

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>