Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Architecturally a large relatively original house which is of an uncommon form (two-level arcade) within a common style-group (Italianate) and retains elements of its original landscape and siting character: of regional importance.

Heritage Study/Consultant	Moonee Valley - Essendon Conservation Study, Graeme Butler, 1985;
Construction dates	1890,

Physical Description 1

A slated M-hip roofed, Italianate styled two-storey (former) house with stuccoed brick walls, a two-level arcaded front verandah and a central tower with balustraded parapet and orbs. Eaves brackets, barrelled chimney tops and string-moulds, provide some of the restrained ornament.

Externally, the upper arcade has been enclosed and an unsympathetic face-brick addition made to the north.

An exotic landscape setting is sympathetic, if of a later date: Cypress (obscuring house), palms and clipped hedges are contributively elements.

Streetscape

The landscape period (c1920) extends to the north to include a contemporary former dwelling; adjoining buildings are of mixed, non-contributive character; and the site is on a hill and therefore prominent.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
