
HOUSE

City of Darebin Heritage Review 2000

Map Ref: 30 E10
NOT within Heritage Overlay Area.
City of Darebin Heritage Review 2000 (map)

Location

157 CLARKE STREET, NORTHCOTE, DAREBIN CITY

Municipality

DAREBIN CITY

Level of significance

Included in Heritage Overlay

Heritage Overlay Numbers

HO120

Heritage Listing

Darebin City

Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

What is significant?

The house at 157 Clarke Street, Northcote, built by 1928 for Henry P. Gibaud. Non-original alterations and additions are not significant.

How is it significant?

The house at 157 Clarke Street, Northcote is of local architectural significance to Darebin City.

Why is it significant?

It is architecturally significant as a notable example of the Californian Bungalow style with unusual details and distinctive brickwork, prominently sited amongst a group of individually notable houses. (Criterion E)

Heritage Study/Consultant Darebin - Darebin Heritage Review, Andrew Ward, 2000;

Hermes Number 24102

Property Number

Physical Description 1

No 157 Clarke Street is a large red and clinker brick Californian Bungalow style house with a broad shallow pitched terracotta tiled gabled roof. A grand sweeping staircase leads to the verandah which has classical columns on brick piers and wrought iron balustrading. Clinker brick diamond patterns and bands decorate the street facade. The double-hung sash windows are arranged in groups of three, separated by barley twist columns. An unusual characteristic for a house of this era is the integral garage at lower ground level.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>