Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

The former Loyal Albert lodge Hall was built in stages culminating in the 1930's additions to meet the corporate needs of the Independent Order of Oddfellows (Criterion A). The building consists of a single storey brick hall and a two-storey Inter war Classical building to Mt Alexander Road. The former Hall is of architectural, historical, social and aesthetic significance to the municipality (Criterion E). The architectural style is relatively grand in the Mt Alexander streetscape. The hall is a good surviving local example of the Inter War Classical style. The former Loyal Albert is also socially significant for its association with the Trustees of the Loyal Albert Lodge MU IOaF who were instrumental in establishing social change in the protection of financial well-being of its local members

(Criterion G).
