Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

What is significant?

The dwelling, constructed c.1915, at 31 Radovick Street, Korumburra.

Why is it significant?

The dwelling at 31 Radovick Street, Korumburra is of local historic and aesthetic significance to South Gippsland Shire.

Historically, it is part of a group of dwellings in Radovick Street that demonstrate the early residential development of Korumburra. The quality of the detailing demonstrates prosperity and development of Korumburra during the Federation period. (AHC criteria - A.4 and D.2)

Aesthetically, it is a superior and relatively intact example of a Federation Villa that makes a notable contribution to the historic character of the Radovick Street residential area. (AHC criterion - E.1)
