Physical Description 1

28 Glenard Drive is an English Domestic Revival style, inter-War suburban villa. The single-storey house is asymmetrically planned with steeply pitched gabled tiled roofs and textured rendered walls. One side of the projecting gabled section on the entrance elevation extends to form an entrance porch with a brick arched opening. Windows are generally double-hung sashes with diamond pane leadlighting, with timber bracketed sills. A tall chimney stack is of clinker brick.
