
Building

House, 202 Barnard St, Bendigo

Location

202 Barnard Street, BENDIGO VIC 3550 - Property No 179098

Municipality

GREATER BENDIGO CITY

Level of significance

Incl in HO area indiv sig

Heritage Overlay Numbers

HO93

Heritage Listing

Greater Bendigo City

Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Architecturally, the house has distinctive detailing, a prominent location and is close to original condition. It also contributes to a group of individually notable sites, some linked by Beebe's design and others by a common era.

Historically, as the long-term house and surgery of a doctor, it takes on a quasi-public building role as a place known by many 'Bendigonians' early this century.

Heritage Study/Consultant	Greater Bendigo - Eaglehawk & Bendigo Heritage Study, GraemeButler & Associates, 1993;
Construction dates	1895,
Architect/Designer	Beebe, William,
Other Names	Surgery,
Hermes Number	34159
Property Number

Physical Description 1

Red brick with cemented detail, the house has notable elements of Beebe's architecture in its use of the Queen Anne revival style, the parapet being reminiscent of the Fuse Factory (q.v.) and the oculus of the Lansell residence in nearby View Street. Some original pickets remain.

Integrity

External - Generally original.

Physical Description 2

Landscape - Remnant landscape includes a Canary Island date palm.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>