The Old Bellarine Cemetery is of local Historic significance. Consisting of only one headstone, it commemorates the settling of the Gange family close to the vicinity of the Cemetery. John Thomas Mitchell Gange was granted this parcel of land in the mid 1860's by the Drysdale family of "Coryule" for whom he had worked as Foreman for some years. The Headstone commemorates his passing in 1868, his wife's passing in 1882 and the tragic loss of their children between 1848 and 1855.

The headstone is also a fine example of monument masonry of the era.
